Dear people at home, -

It is Sunday night, and I suppose you will be wondering what has happened to me this week. It has been rather a stormy week, don't you think, but just extremes. It was terribly cold and stormy Thursday, and we thought there was going to be a blizzard; then it came off warm, and the last two days have been like April; but we haven't had a day for ages that was pleasant straight through.

My snow-shoes and dress-suitcase came yesterday afternoon, and surprised me most pleasantly, especially the cookies. I was very glad to get the other things, too, especially the over-shoes as I went to a dance last night. There was an invitation dance at the barn which some upper class girls gave; I was invited, and had a perfectly splendid time. In fact, I've been quite giddy; I went over to Norumbega to dinner last night with Dorothy Williams, and then to the dance; to-day, I went to Cazenove.

to dinner and went back again for supper. I have had a splendid time, but every time I go anywhere, I am glad to get back to Freeman and am very glad I live here rather than anywhere else.

At last mid-year exam schedule is posted and I am quite pleased at the way my exams come. I have one Tues, Feb. 5, another Thurs. P.M., and another Fri. morning. Then I don't have anything until Thurs. Feb. 12, so I think I shall come home after the Fri. exam, if you people would be willing to have me. (?) That will give me  $5\frac{1}{2}$  days at home.

Well, I must go to bed now, for I have an enormous amount of work to do to-morrow. I will write again the middle of the week, for I know this isn't much of a letter. I was awfully glad to have Papa telephone to me, & I hope he will this week, too. Give lots of love to all, including Needle & Kitty. Tell Needle that Sigurd wears a muggle & hates it horribly. With a great deal of love, I am
Yours, lovingly
Ruby.
